

Protesters

Occupy London seize old court

Members of the Occupy London protest took control of their fourth site – the building that used to house Old Street Magistrates Court in east London. They were joined by members of Veterans for Peace, who brought along a decommissioned armoured vehicle. Other members were in the High Court for proceedings for eviction from St Paul's Cathedral churchyard.

Tobacco firms 'misled' public about additives

Cigarette giant Philip Morris 'obscured' evidence of toxicity, claims new report

By JEREMY LAURANCE
Health Editor

The tobacco industry is accused today of misleading smokers over the safety

IN THE MIX
ADDED CHEMICALS

